As part of their service and consulting to the CPA industry, K2 regularly reviews both hardware and software products for software publishers and hardware manufacturers. These products are used by CPAs in both public practice and industry. "Great value, vision, and consistency are recognized by our CPA attendees. When companies are innovating, we can see the quality of their products and/or services improving before the market, as a whole, recognizes the changes," said K2 Executive Vice-President, Randy Johnston.

K2 Enterprises is the premier provider of technology continuing professional education (CPE) in both the United States and Canada. With seminars in over 47 states in 2007, 800+ presentations, special events such as their turn-key Annual Technology Conferences, CPE & Ski, K2 Enterprises - Canada, they are the largest provider of technology CPE in North America.

K2 Enterprises Annual Quality Awards are determined by an opinion poll of the K2 Enterprises instructor team. The polling members of this team are Randy Johnston, Will Fleenor, Val Steed, Bob Spencer, Alan Salmon, Lawrence (Mac) McClelland, Tommy Stephens, Brian Tankersley, Ward Blatch, Bruce Andersen, Bob Gaby & David Cieslak. Their votes are influenced by, end user feedback, and experience from consulting and extensive teaching. Detailed biographies on each of the polled members can be found at: <http://www.k2e.com/team>
